

Arizona State NROTC Sea Devil Prep Program

A pilot program to provide a Navy commissioning (NROTC) opportunity for highly motivated and exceptional candidates. The Arizona State NROTC Sea Devil Prep Program prepares Midshipmen-Candidates to succeed in the NROTC curriculum.

Benefits:

Arizona State University will provide in-state resident tuition and fees, on-campus housing, and on-campus meals for a one-year NROTC preparation program as Midshipmen-Candidates. Provided the candidates meet the criteria listed below, they will be awarded a national NROTC scholarship to Arizona State University at the conclusion of their first year.

This national NROTC scholarship will provide up to 4 additional years of tuition & fees to attend ASU. National NROTC scholarships also include textbook stipends each semester and personal monthly stipends that increase each year of college. For more information visit <https://www.nrotc.navy.mil/scholarships.html>.

Requirements:

- Arizona resident admitted to ASU for the fall semester
- Full-time, first-year students pursuing their first undergraduate degree
- Navy Option NROTC Only
- Science, technology, engineering or math major (27 ASU majors available)
- Maintain a 2.8 minimum ASU cumulative GPA
- Pass Navy's Physical Fitness Assessment once a semester with a minimum score of "Good Low"
- Maintain good standing* within the NROTC unit
- Live in Arizona State University on-campus housing
- Receive a favorable endorsement from the Professor of Naval Science and the College of Engineering or College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the conclusion of year one as a Midshipman-Candidate
- Meet Department of Defense standards (DODMERB) for physical qualifications for commissioned officers

* Good standing is defined as maintaining academic and physical requirements per NSTC 1533.2C - Regulations for Officer Development